

About Shopping Forever

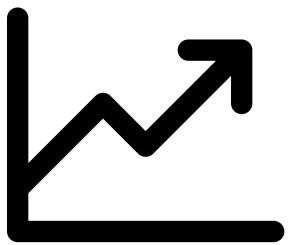

What is affiliation?

Affiliation is a market in which you establish a partnership relationship with sellers of products and/or services. From there earning commissions with the sale of these products and/or services through affiliate links.

Shopee Affiliation

To affiliate with products and/or services it is necessary to be part of a program of affiliation. And Shopee has the Shopee Marketing program allowing users to affiliate with products within the platform.

Motivation

The affiliation market is a source of income with excellent cost and benefit, because you don't need to invest to start earning. And with the earnings you can further accelerate your profits through marketing tools and strategies digital which you can have a training often offered by the affiliation platforms or by the creators of products and/or services.

The Shopping Forever

It is a Front End project of a Shopee product affiliation store that offers dissemination and training services through the availability of its source code.
